CRITERIA FOR ACCEPTANCE

The Bluegrass Tournament is not a first come, first serve event. Registration online only guarantees your clubs consideration for the event.

When the selection process begins, the tournament uses a list of criteria, listed below, to help select the teams for participation.

STRENGTH OF TEAMS

The Bluegrass Tournament is a highly competitive and heavily recruited event. This is due to the large number of outstanding clubs that participate. It is our tournament's objective to continue to provide a high level of excellence and strength of team will be used as top consideration

DIVERSITY

The Bluegrass Tournament believes that it is important that the tournament offer diversity. It is our belief that teams appreciate playing competitive matches with as many different teams (clubs) as possible.

PREVIOUS SUPPORT

The Bluegrass Tournament takes into consideration past years of support when working through the selection process.

HOUSING

The Bluegrass Tournament is NOT a stay-to-play event. However, those clubs who book with our housing company are favored in the selection process.
