

WHAT'S NEW

 in Greater Fort Lauderdale

NEW HOTELS

Four Seasons Hotel & Residences Fort Lauderdale overlooks Fort Lauderdale beach and features two restaurants, a spa, ballroom/meeting facilities and more.

Kimpton Goodland Hotel Fort Lauderdale Beach offers a secluded, tropical oasis and dining and drinks at Botanic and the poolside Good Bar.

Comfort meets sophistication at the dual-branded Marriott Fort Lauderdale Airport at Dania Beach and AC Hotel Fort Lauderdale Airport, featuring thoughtful design, meeting rooms, an infinity pool and more.

Hillsboro Beach Resort features Intracoastal dockage with watersports, serene private beach, resort pool and more.

AC Hotel Fort Lauderdale Beach boasts ocean views, resort-style pool meeting space and more.

NEW DINING AND NIGHTLIFE

DUNE by Laurent Tourondel features elevated dining and innovative cuisine by the Michelin-starred chef, located inside the Auberge Beach Residences and Spa.

Ya Mas! on Las Olas Boulevard transports guests to a lively taverna found on Mykonos or Santorini.

PLANTA Queen offers vegan and plant-based dishes with bold Asian flavors, including sushi, dumplings and noodles. The 150-seat restaurant features a vibrant ambiance for weekend brunch, lunch or dinners that turn into late-night drinks.

Sunset Club Rooftop Bar & Lounge is now open at Costa Hollywood Beach Hotel.

The Angeles, now open in downtown Fort Lauderdale, is a church transformed into a two-story nightclub and a 220-seat restaurant called Holly Blue. The venue can accommodate 700 people, including 75-100 in the VIP area overlooking the dance floor.

The Katherine opened in downtown Fort Lauderdale and showcases the cuisine of James Beard nominated chef Timon Balloo, reflecting his Chinese, Indian and Trinidadian roots.

Gulfstream Park debuted the Carousel Club, fusing open-air entertainment and the thrill of world-class thoroughbred horse racing. This first-of-its-kind, trackside venue features memorable moments for 1,500 guests with lawn games, elevated mixology, top DJ's, live entertainment, culinary pop-ups, Instagram-worthy elements and much more.
